Bonnie Brae Gardens

1 ¼ Miles South of

WATERVLiet, MICH.

The dry, hot summer of 1930 was one of the worst on record. However, a visitor at Bonnie Brae Gardens last fall remarked that in my small block there were more and better blooms than he saw the previous day in a dahlia field of fourteen acres. That bit of encouragement brought to my mind some inspiring lines of bygone years and I pass them on to you.

If you strike a thorn or rose,—Keep a-goin'.

If it hails or if it snows,—Keep a-goin'.

'Taint no use to sit and whine

When the fish ain't on your line;

Bait your hook and keep on tryin'.

Keep a-goin',

When the weather kills your crop,—Keep a-goin'.

When you tumble from the top,—Keep a-goin'.

S'pose you're out o' every dime!

Gettin' broke ain't any crime;

Tell the world you're feelin' prime—

Keep a-goin'.

When it looks like all is up,—Keep a-goin'.

Drain the sweetness from the cup,—Keep a-goin'.

See the wild birds on the wing,

Hear the bells that sweetly ring—

When you feel like sighin', sing—Keep a-goin'.

In the following list of Dahlias of Bonnie Brae introductions I have diverged from the usual practice of asking from $5.00 to $15.00 for new introductions.

ALICE PALMER (H.C.). Lavender pink, shading golden at base of the 7-in. flowers. Some of the long narrow petals whorl and twist from the full center of the beautiful blooms which set facing on strong stems.....$1.00

BONNIE LASSIE (Cactus). Eight-inch blooms of a seashell pink, shading to amber gold at base of the long, narrow petals that wave and twist, lending a light, airy appearance to the full-centered blooms that are held on long, wiry stems. A beautiful creation.....$2.00

BETTY GILCHRIST (Dec.). Six-inch blooms of ideal form on extra stems, holding its delicately tinted flowers upright to facing. Outer edges of petals are bright, shiny pink, shading to cream and lemon at base. The petals whorl and fold back on fully developed blooms, lending an airy appearance. This beautiful dahlia bears the name of one of my niece's former Sunday School girls.$2.00

BONNIE QUEEN. Decorative, of free blooming habit, with 6½-in. blooms. The color is that of the General Jackminot rose without shadings. The large blooms face squarely outward.....$1.00

BONNIE MADGE. Light seashell pink, decorative, with 5-inch blooms on good stems of a sturdy plant.....60c

DR. H. H. HAMMEL. This outstanding cactus dahlia is named in honor of one of Michigan's prominent sons who, when a lad, helped us in our farm work. The large blooms are crimson scarlet, with some of the long narrow petals tipped white. Reverse of the petals—some of which roll and twist—Show a lighter shade tipped white, with base of petals shading to gold. Extra keepers as cut flowers.....$2.00

HIGHLANDER. A large flower of a blending of reddish bronze buff and old gold, shading to a lighter gold at base. Excellent as garden or cut flower on strong stems and good keeping qualities.....$1.50

INDIAN CHIEF. Tawny pink, shading to orange at base. 5½-in. bloom of most perfect form.....75c

J. R. ROBERTS. English Cactus of good size and graceful appearance. Lake red, reverse lighter.....75c

- MAJESTY. A seedling of Mrs. I. de Ver Warner, a shade lighter and equally as good in every way.....50c
- MELBA. Almost round, 4-inch blooms of lavender pink, shading to amber gold at base of petals.....40c
- OTTO HINGST. Lemon-yellow, suffused light pink. Reverse of petals pink, shaded yellow. Petals are long, whorled and twisted, lending grace to the 7-inch blooms75c
- REV. TEACHOUT. Peony decorative. Blooms 6 to 7 inches, held well above foliage. Petals rose-colored with white lines extending to base of the long petals which recurve toward stem.....60c
- ROSALINDA. Tall, stately plant with 7-in. blooms which sometimes show a center. The long whorled petals are lake red with lighter reverse stems, long and hard. An excellent cut flower and garden beauty.....$1.25
- WAKEFIELD. (H.C.). 7-in. full double blooms, held upright to facing and of a darker shade than its parent, Mrs. I. de Ver Warner. Growth robust.....40c
- WHITE PIGEON. (Dec.). A good-sized, white delicately tinted and freely produced on good stems that hold the blooms facing.....35c
- WM. RAESIDE. A seedling of dahlia Judge Marean, maintaining the profuse blooming qualities of its parent. The full massive flowers are a glowing pink, red, yellow and orange blending together, the pink predominating. Named in honor of one of my Scotch friends.....$2.00
- YVONNE. Mammoth peony flowers on good stems and attractive blending colors.....25c
- Eight Unnamed Seedlings, no two alike, a bargain at.....$1.00
